MESSAGE FROM HOME.

With regard to best regards from the business youth
Give back letter
To the Blairstown booth
Bending to meekness
All the while
Over a hundred
Newspaper file
Hundreds old paper
Lester to me
Bent and tried
It seems to be
The world tree root winds it
Up and down
Blown old paper
From the blighted home town.

Type is sketchy.
The ink is poor
Has printed supplement
For a little
Gives advice to girls
And blots on dress
Shows new married couple
To happiness
Yet in the little sheet
A vista lies ahead
Of the somewhere else
To those remarkable eyes
Of the somewhere else
With its numerous exiles
To the somewhere youth
With the transplanted foot
H. H. Holland in New York City

DANCES.

The Charity Ball, too much cannot be said in praise of the committee who planned the second Charity Ball, which was given Tuesday evening at the Nueces Hotel.

For more than two weeks before the affair the committees were all working to make the ball a huge success and it more than fulfilled every one's expectations.

Mr. W. H. Hall was general chairman and Mrs. Edwin Flato treasurer and much of the success is due their efforts alone. They were ably assisted by the members of all committees.

Mr. J. J. Six, the manager of the Nueces, not only gave the use of the banquet hall and parlors for the dance, but also created the candy booth and fortune teller's booth in the side parlor.

Tickets were taken at the door by Mr. L. H. Hobson and Mr. Amos Hobson.

Mr. W. H. Hall was the genius from whose brain.

The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller.
